LADIES WHO GO SHOPPING.—They should remember that in these tight times, one man's loss is another man's fortune; and that M H. JICHIENSTEIN, who was for thirteen years so reliberated in the Bowers for keeping the cheepest place in the city, and who now has the reputation in his new place at No. 387 Broadway of underselling all rivals whatever has taken immense advantage of the fact for his customarr's benefit, by laying in an entiricy new stock of goods at a loss of fifty cents on the dollar to the importer? he has therefore, on band, and will open with on TUESDAY next, the richest assortment of OSTRICH TIPS, FRENCH FLOWERS. SILK and FANCE BONNET VELVETS, as well as all kinds of TRIMMINGS, for adder dresses, &c., in the latest fashionable atyles, ever skilblied in this city. JICHIENSTEIN'S store will be closed TO-DAY (Monday) in order to get rid of his old stock at suction, and substitute the novelites just introduced. Thresday will fine his capacious establishment, therefore, groaning with a world of beautiful thoughreas-mably priced fabrits, fresh from the loom, and those who favor him with a call will be delighted at the brilliant display of seasonable goods preserbed.

Mancing Academies.

A. DODWORTH'S DANCING ACADEMIES,
No. 305 BROADWAY, NEW-YORK.
No. 137 MONTAGUE PLACE, BROOKLYN.
Classes will commence First West in Outober, or immediately after Mr. Dodworth's return from Europe.
Mr. DODWORTH would take occasion to say that he has long felt the necessity of introducing a system of instruction for the use of the younger pupils by which the exercise of Dancing would be of more benefit physically, and more useful in the development of graceful information and similar dances of the present time are acquired has induced many to neglect thore exercises that were formedy indispensable. To that neglect, as one of the causes, may be attributed the appearance of so many round-shouldered young misses in the present generation. They are sent to school, and allowed to stoop over their desk without intermediate exercise, until the growing frame assumes the position in which it has so long been restrained; they are then sent to a teacher of dancing, with the expectation that by learning the Polka, Schottisch and a few other dances of this would be remedied, and they would at once become graceful women. Surely these things should be bester understood. Were children sent to dancing early in life, at intervals during their pecessary studies, and the teacher allowed to exercise them to such a manner and in such dances, in addition to the fashionable ones, as would add grace to the figure, walk and every movement, then something would be gained consistent with the true object of this valuable accomplishment. Anxious to reatone the art to its former usefulness, Mr. Dodworth instructed his classes in that acknowledged graceful study, the Minust de la Gour, and other dances of similar usefulness. The evodant suncess of this course in the effect upon the pupils encouraged kin to give more attection to Dancing as connected with Calesthenics; and during his present tous through Germany, France and Great Britain it will be his business to call upon the most prominent teachers, and consult with them in regard to the best
